Dear parents and carers

It is with sadness that I need to inform you that I will be leaving Falcon Junior School at Easter. I have accepted a position as Executive Headteacher at the Angel Road Schools, leading the infant and junior schools and will take up the role from 22nd April 2025.

I joined Falcon Junior School in January 2019 and I have loved working here. The school has been on a huge journey of change during this time. Together, staff, governors, pupils and families have navigated flooding, school closure, temporary accommodation and Portakabins, renovations, reopening and the Covid pandemic. It has certainly been an interesting five years!

I would like to thank all of the families for your support during my headship. I really appreciate and value the partnerships that we have developed. The children at Falcon have always been amazing – they are just such a fabulous group and I am proud to have been their headteacher. I wish all of them the best for the future.

Lastly, the staff at Falcon are second to none. I have not come across a staff team like them before. Their commitment to the children and Falcon is such that it really does feel like a family in the school. I will miss all of them very much.

After Christmas, governors will consider next steps for the school and I will continue to lead Falcon in the Spring Term.

Thank you for your continued support.
