#2 Sensory Bins

An opportunity for children to engage up to all five of their senses.

An opportunity for children to develop their language skills.

What is a sensory bin?

An opportunity for children to develop their fine motor skills.

An opportunity for children to develop their imaginary play skills.

How do I make a sensory bin?

You need a low sided container (e.g. a washing up bowl).

Make a decision about your theme- will be opened ended using just natural resources, will it have a small world theme such as Dora the Explorer or Fairies, or will it have a construction theme with diggers, lorries and tractors?

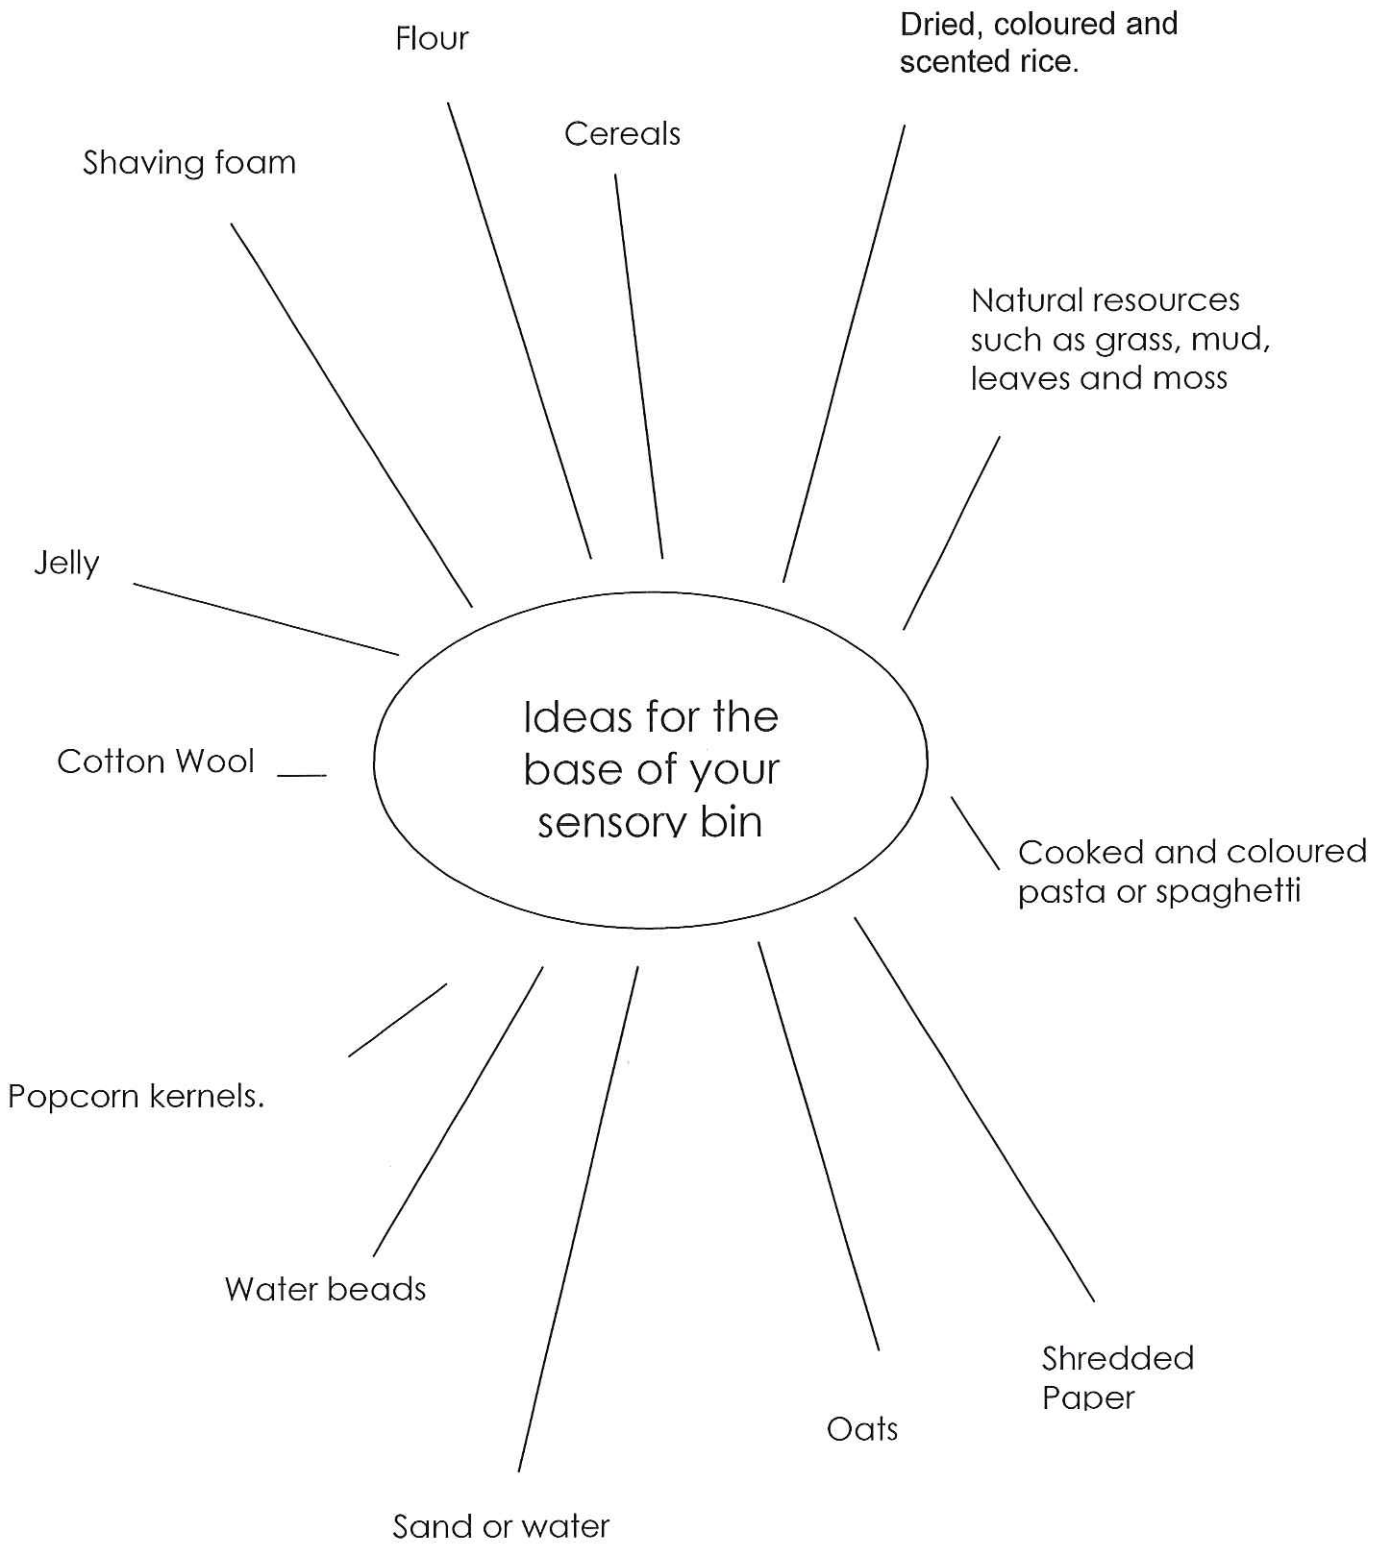

Cover the bottom of the container with a base resource (see next page).

Add resources that create the environment e.g. cocktail umbrellas as trees, or twigs to make dens. Add toys that can explore the environment e.g. small world people, cars and tractors

Add opened ended resources that children can use to manipulate and investigate e.g. magnifying glasses, binoculars, different sized containers, different sized spoons and sieves.
